NOTICES FROM THE ENGLISH PRESS.

"The author of 'The Hen-pecked Husband' has given us another refreshing and delightful novel, full of vivid and glowing life-pictures, animated scenes, and deeply interesting narrative. The book is one of the most readable of the season." —[Atheneum.]

"This is a delightful book; the plot is deeply interesting, the characters well drawn, the narrative brilliant and well sustained, and the denouement comes off like a work of art." —[London Quarterly.]

"The intention of the novel is admirable, its moral unexceptionable, its style easy and graceful, and its interest well sustained. We commend it highly." —[Liverpool Mail.]

A NEW AND DESIRABLE MUSIC BOOK.

THE CANZONETTA.

A collection of Vocal Music for Schools, Institutes and choirs for the social circle, containing a short grammar and a set of vocal exercises, also a variety of sacred and secular music, arranged in Two and Three Parts, by E. J. FISHER.

THE CANZONETTA has been prepared to supply a want for many years, in Two and Three Parts, suitable for schools and classes, and here practice, where four parts cannot always be had. It has been the aim to arrange the parts melodious and flowing.

The music is mostly new, very little of it having appeared in books. Some Vocal compositions will be found in his pages, also from Moore, Walker, Fiske, &c. It has been adopted for the Public Schools of New-York, Brooklyn, after a most critical examination by a Committee of competent musicians. Principles and Music Teachers in general, who are desirous of doing more for their students, will find THE CANZONETTA adapted to their wants.

Price, $1 per copy. Sample copies sent to Heads of Seminaries, Teachers and Clergymen, post-paid, on the receipt of $1.

W. M. A. FOND & CO., No. 547 Broadway, New-York.
